If you change your principal place of residence on or after January 1, 2017, and the new resident of the property is not eligible for the exemption, the exemption shall cease to apply to that property on the date of the sale or transfer. An exemption will not be allowed on your new residence until you qualify and file a claim with the Assessor or within 30 days of the date of notice of supplemental assessment. In the case where a supplemental notice was not mailed or not required, you must file a claim the later of:

- (a) 90 days of acquisition of your new residence, or 90 days after you establish residency at a property you previously owned; or
- (b) on or before the next following lien date after the year that your property was acquired, or when you established residency in a previously owned property.

Note: If you were not eligible for the exemption on January 1, 2017, you must notify the Assessor on or before June 30, 2016, or you will be subject to payment of the amount of taxes the exemption represents, plus a 25 percent penalty and interest.
